STARGAZE ENTERTAINMENT, INC. ANNOUNCE THE START OF POST-PRODUCTION ON "FORBIDDEN PLAYGROUND"

LOCAL FILM MAKER PRODUCES A BIG BUDGET MOVIE ON A SHOESTRING BUDGET.

EDMONTON, AB (November 10, 2016) – Stargaze Entertainment today announced the world wide release of "FORBIDDEN PLAYGROUND," written, produced and directed by Kevin Matlo. The film was shot in Edmonton, Sherwood Park, and Fort Saskatchewan, Alberta, and can be seen on Vimeo as a VOD.

Matlo says, "With the support we received from local businesses, individuals and the voluntary support of the City of Edmonton, Gibbons Fire Department, Prairie EMS and the Edmonton Peace Officers, we were able to make a quality film on a very tight budget."

The motion picture Stars: Samantha Grant (Heartland, Blackstone, The Outer Limits), Jesse Lipscombe (Resurrecting the Champ, The Christmas Blessing), Martin Andrew (Oceans 13), Mark Kandborg (Money, Highlander, The X-Files)

"This story will resonate with anyone who has tried to balance business and family life. Devoting excessive time to a business is very common today. The strain this puts on family and marriage can be devastating. In the case of Forbidden Playground, this strain turns deadly." says Kevin Matlo, director, producer and writer. "With this talented group of filmmakers, we are able to bring this powerful story to the big screen."

"FORBIDDEN PLAYGROUND" is the story of a couple's struggles with balancing family, business and careers while trying to spend quality time with their children. The stress of building a thriving business puts tremendous strain on their marriage which leads to infidelity, obsession and murder.

The behind-the-scenes creative team includes cinematographer John Spooner ("Voyage of the Unicorn, Whitecoats"), production manager Doug Steeden ("Holiday in Handcuffs, Santa Baby"), and sound engineer Perry Blackman ("Family Channel, Super Channel, Alliance Atlantis, Movie Central").
